

Under Lock and Key

Cliff Richard

Making promises you can't keep
Bringing down every one that you meet
Say who's it gonna be this time
Gonna use the same old line
Gone are the days of running free
I'm gonna keep you under lock keep you under lock and key

Idle rumours surround you
I turned my head cos I knew they were true
Who you gonna lay on today
Ahh you're a bad news woman they say
Look what you're doing to me
I'm gonna keep you under lock keep you under lock and key
Alright babe you had it coming and I'm gonna lock you away

I said alright babe you best be runnin' now
You're thru with cheating on me
I'm gonna keep you under lock and key

You won't get away this time
You're thru with all your cheating and lying Ooh this is the way it's got to be
I'm gonna keep you under lock keep you under lock and key
I'm gonna keep you under lock keep you under lock and key

I'm gonna lock you away
I'm gonna throw away the key
Ah you're a bad news woman
Lock you away yeah
Throw away the key...
