

Precious Moments

Climie Fisher

I'm always the one to say
There's nothing to be afraid of
So why oh why does everything change
I close my eyes because it's so strange

I' m scared scared of letting go
Unprepared for what I don't know
Shouldn't be frightened
This is a precious moment

I look into her eyes
And I see my own reflection
She moves slowly out of the light
The world she knows is far from her side

She's scared scared of letting go
Unprepared for what I don't know
Shouldn't be frightened
This is a precious moment

Let go ... Let go
Don't hide your love away it's a precious moment
Let go .. Don't let it run away it's a precious moment
Let go ... Oh precious moment please don 't go

And just cos I'll make a plan
Don't mean that I understand it
Meeting you it's different somehow
One touch from you and suddenly now

I' m scared scared of letting go
Unprepared for what I don't know
Shouldn't be frightened
This is a precious moment

Let go .. Let go
Don't hide your love away - it as a precious moment
Let go .. Don't let it run away it as a precious moment
Let go.
