Buying Time

Clint Black

I've played the games, the masquerades By the time the eleventh hour fades You're bound to know that what I say is true And I'm the one you're looking for Every time you find that cheatin' door I'll just keep pretending I never knew But what are we in this for When our hearts are on the line? And if a heart could brake You're surely breaking mine And if we fall to ruin It wasn't my design But if I can have my way There's no price I won't pay To just keep buying time I'll have to say, I have my doubts But I'll give all till I give out And I'll do anything to make you stay But this could be part of the plan Maybe we were dealt a losing hand But I'll have to let the cards fall where they may But what are we in this for When our hearts are on the line? And if a heart could brake You're surely breaking mine And if we fall to ruin It wasn't my design But if I can have my way There's no price I won't pay To just keep buying time
