Cadillac Jack Favor

Clint Black

He's Cadillac Jack Favor and the name rings true If he's got a ride any stranger would too The one bad habit that his Ponder would say Is sure gonna put him through the trials one day And that's just what happened he took pity on two men Heading down to Louisiana, he stopped and let them in And the thanks he did for helping them Would make him wish he was busting broncs again He dropped them off in Bossieer City where they met up with a m an That vagabond committee barely even had a plan It was just a simple robbery turned double homicide They got away with murder it'd be someone else's hide Almost two years come and gone they never solved that crime 'Til they found one of our vagabonds already doing time When that jailbird started singing they all knew the words were wrong But the sheriff and the DA and the judge all sang along They pinned it on Jack Favor, gave him life without parole Gave Jack's freedom to the jailbird, payment on the lies he tol d Just so happens that election year everybody payed out at the p olls Cadillac's no fallen hero and he's never gonna break When it comes to prison rodeo, there'll be no easy eight And if you want the definition of the picture-perfect frame It'd be in the dictionary underneath Jack Favor's name Cadillac's no fallen hero and he's never gonna break When it comes to prison rodeo, there's still no easy eight And if you want the definition of the picture-perfect frame It'd be in the dictionary underneath Jack Favor's name Yeah, it's the world's most crooked picture and when it comes t o being framed Cadillac Jack Favor should be in the hall of fame
