

Stay With You Tonight

Clinton Sparks

Can I stay with you tonight
Cause I don't think that I'm alright
I need to find a piece of mind
Cause I messed up just by design
And I don't even trust myself
Yeah baby, I could use your help
What's on your mind, baby, let me know
I don't really wanna go, go, go
Cause I'm not into leaving
I'll be scratching, kicking screaming
Girl, I'm feeling

Can I stay with you tonight
Can I stay with you tonight
And we'll do something
That's not right
Can I stay with you tonight
I wanna stay with you

You might be just as fucked as me
But I still need some company
Maybe we'll take each other down
And we can face that
On the ground, ground, cause
I've been so mistreated
I'll be scratching, kicking screaming
Girl, I'm feeling

Can I stay with you tonight
Can I stay with you tonight
And we'll do something
That's not right
Can I stay with you tonight
I wanna stay with you

OK Flip
Home dance, the king with the blue wrist
Counting coke on the table with a sword fish (damn)
I promised myself one thing
Married to the success, keep the diamond ring
She want me, wants me to stay in
I ain't drop, but I'm swinging in the Garden Benz
Poor model, what a short thing to hide in Flashbacks over high school, about gym
Now I'm just high with school women, girl
Me and you is just possible to be just friends
Had sex one time, then you moved in (what)
No now you got something on your girlfriends

Can I stay with you tonight
Can I stay with you tonight
And we'll do something
That's not right
Can I stay with you tonight
I wanna stay with you
Yeah, yeah, yeah
I wanna stay with you

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Can I stay with you
