

From This Day On

Close Lobsters

From this day on the spectre haunting europe will be gone
From this day on
From this day on the crooked cross of the south will reign
From this day on

There never was a better man then jack
In banana republic UK everything's up for grabs
Get me home, get me home

From this day on totally zonked out is the norm
From this day on
From this day on you can but share in layers of ozone
From this day on

There never was a leaner time for brains
In banana republic UK it's best to undercut your friends
Get me home, get me home, get off me
Get me home

There was never a better man that Jack
In banana republic, you get everything up for grabs
Get me home, get me home, get off me
