

Hold Back The Flood

Clou

Awake again untill the dawn
On the road so many weeks this time, yeah
It's harder than you know, my love
And harder every day to not lose sight, yeah

You've seen the way move in the time
With every beat we play

You couldn't come along this round
It seems I've gone a week without your smile, yeah
The party ever carries on
And once again I go to sleep alone, yeah

I'm always good, I never waver
I sit and dream of you
But now you're calling on the phone
With tears and painfull truth

I couldn't hold back the flood, though I love you so
How can you, how can you, how can you
Spent so many nights alone, with you out on the road
I had to, I had to, I had to

It's morning and I'm calming down
There weeks pass emersed in sweat and sound, yeah
I'd tell you that I'm on the mend
But it makes me sick to speak your name, yeah

You've seen the way they move in time
With every beat we play
I'll save for them my saddest songs
And throw the rest away

Couldn't hold back the flood, though I loved you so
How can you, how can you, how can you
Spent so many nights alone, with you out on the road
I had to, I had to, I had to

It took time to know
How good my life could be
Realize I have no regrets
But to have known you

Realize I have no regrets
But to have known you
But to have known you

Couldn't hold back the flood, though I loved you so
How can you, how can you, how can you
Spent so many nights alone, with you out on the road
I had to, I had to, I had to

Couldn't hold back the flood, though I loved you so
How can you, how can you, how can you
Spent so many nights alone, with you out on the road...