

Eyes Of Jealousy

Cloudscape

She'd set the world on fire words turned into lies she tried to hide her anger doesn't care she's alone in silence no tears, neither smiling she tried to close her eyes

No lies, she's being honest everyone looked down at her if she could cry she'd scream in anger chances are made to take a risk for

She tried to carry on rumours spread by liars she used to be so loved jealousy, surrounded emotion's trembling

Sacrificed her freedom many dreams came true so lonely and abandoned
kept the fire burning determined to stand tall tried to close her eyes

What's the prize, her sacrifice refused to share her inner secrets

The eyes of jealousy her inner secrets

Oooh, was there a way to let go oooh, she needed encourage

Visions, guiding shadows clouded her smiling, mourning shining, glowing she's always followed her heart jealousy tried to pull her down

Dreaming of kindness emotions in motion

everyone looked down at her that night
