After defying the grip of the hangman?s noose And recovering my cognizance Spun the compass north by northwest And took liberty out for a long slow dance

Took a good look around, what did I see?

A big red tent and people coming in like the tide of the sea
I ducked in to catch the shade

Preacher jump up all ablaze

They say, "This year rock is coming back, Jack White gnashing teeth like wolves in the pack Carnivorous, no mercy, hon There?s plenty here for everyone, so come, get you some"

10,000 witnesses, show ?em how it?s done, son
Fist full of cottonmouth, rock that podium
Walk on the ashes, no half stepping, kid
Their fans are flashing in expectation
All right now, all right now, all right

While living on the lamb and all cut loose Number of the saints march on in Gonna find my executioners And show them exactly what it means to live
