

What Would A Wookie Do?

Clutch

Two Oaken Doors
Open two Floors
Imported marble
Victorian drawers

They go between
Bucolic scenes
Machiavellian and all the lesser name schemes

Greyhounds and rabbits
Go round and round
But everybody scatters
When the Hindenburg goes down!

Robber-Baroness-es
Carpet-baggers-ese
But honestly speaking, now
We all got the same disease

[Chorus]
I'm afraid the party's canceled
The servants never showed
All the world was pranceful
Of this foreboding note

Force gettin' ready
Man, we get too much
All the world suffers
The Wookie's wicked clutch

[Verse 2]
The Theocrats
With cricket bats
Hasbollat of love to give ya
Never take it back

A graver danger
You bounce and rape her
Madula-oblingata go
I'll see you all later

Our fist is draggin'
One leg behind
And when the trap is sprung
The Warrior loses his mind

Assassins trippin'
High on Hashesh
But honestly speaking, now,
We all need the same relief

One day or another kid
Our world will be gone
One Day or another kid
Our death will be done
(X2)

General Quarters
You have your orders
Invisible Free-Masonry
Incoming mortars

The fly is landing
And are demanding
Keep on firing until
The last man standing

Stock cars and habits
When the Stock Market goes down

Robber-Baroness-es

[Chorus 2]
I'm afraid the hunt's been canceled
The game never showed
And all the trees were pranceful

Force gettin' ready
