I Told Myself A Lie

Clyde McPhatter

I told myself a lie
When I said I had no cares
'Cause when I'm alone, all alone
Out come the tears, my lonely tears

I told myself a lie
When I said I'll get along
When you're not near
It's funny, dear
But things just go wrong
Everything goes wrong

You got my heart, I know
But why do I fight it so
When I know there's nothing to fear

I told myself a lie
When I said I'll forget
'Cause I can't hide what's here inside
I told myself a lie

I told myself a lie
When I said I'll forget
'Cause I can't hide what's here inside
```
