

Could we please shut our mouths for a while.
For only just a while I could take it.
And if we could lay alone for a while.
For only just a while I could take it.
You have made me alright complete again.
Always willing to break down my will again.M
I intend to render my sensibilities have all gone mad.
You tend to talk about the better things.
Then let's move on to better things.
I'm using all my sensibilities.
Would you please assume that face.
The one that you make at me.
And if we could mae love for a while.
For only just a while, God, I need it I need it.
You have made me alright complete again.
Always willing to break down my will again.
I intend to render my sensibilities have all gone wild.
You tend to talk about the better things.
Then let's move on to better things.
I'm using all my sensibilities.
If we could get caught in the moment.
Get caught in the moment.
Our senses run dry.
I would sacrifice mself for you.
If we could get caught in the moment.
