

Shari Vegas

Coal Chamber

That guilt you've denied will only defeat you.
So stay clean for me cause that's what you should do.
That gaze in your eyes remember when you died.
etch that memory for the next sunrise.
so pleased to meet you Shari.
I've come clean so change the scenery.
I've come clean to Shari Vegas.
Lackluster love affair has left you so jaded.
these rings around your eyes they make you look faded.
come say to me that you'll live one more day.
for that my friend for that will pray.
so pleased to meet you Shari.
I've come clean so change the scenery.
I've come clean to Shari Vegas.
what's worth keeping you'll receive.
exit only let them see.
what's worth keeping you'll receive.
exit only let them see let them see.
so pleased to meet you Shari.
I've come clean so change the scenery.
I've come clean to Shari Vegas.
