

Despite All This

Cock Sparrer

She's a fully paid up, card carrying member
Of the socially inept
Ain't got no air or graces
Just a sense of self loathing
She's lost all self respect

Monday's child's looking out, through tear stained windows
Friday's child is looking in
She wants to get back
To where it all started
She just don't know where to begin

Despite all this, she's shinning through
Despite all this, she'll smile again
Despite all this, she's shinning through
Despite all this, she's gonna win

She needs to find someone, someone to hold her
And wipe away her tears
Someone she can plan with
And look to the future
And take away her fears

Despite all this, she's shinning through
Despite all this, she'll smile again
Despite all this, she's shinning through
Despite all this, she's gonna win

And if you see past the funny hair and makeup
You'll see the spark in her eyes
Doing jobs for a pound that no-one else will take up
She don't believe in compromise
She don't believe in compromise

Despite all this, despite all this
She's shinning through, she's shinning through
Despite all this, she'll smile again
Despite all this, despite all this
She's shinning through, she's shinning through
Despite all this, she's gonna win

She's a fully paid up, card carrying member
Of the socially inept
