In my boat, I'm looking for Where you ran aground with your friend. But I'm sure a sailor will come to save you, Come to save you, come to save you.

I stay face to face in front of you. I stay but I hate the two of you. How can you explain ?

In my boat, far from the shore
Oh I wish you drowned with your friend.
But I'm sure we'll meet again,
Oh somewhere, Oh someday (x 2)

I stay face to face in front of you. I stay but I hate the two of you. How can you explain?

In my boat,
Oohooh...
