

My brother
My only kin
I'm lost in tears in the mirror again

Lord knows I have no conscience
But I'll delve into my mind
Where your voice is still a maze

Lord knows I still need you
But you're far away
Lost in some playground
In Disneyland

Take me with you
We'll play till the end
And fall hard
In the face of the earth

My Brother
My long lost friend
We cut our hands
To have more skin

All I found
Once I left this land
Is the desolation of humankind

Follow me
Will you wind this tape back and
I'll be looking for you around the next bend
