

Tekno Love Song

CocoRosie

I fell in love with a bad bad man
Ever since I met him I been sad, sad, sad June faded into blooms of September's moon waned and grooved
Your perfume haunted me long after I saw the swing of heaven's gate open in toward me Luxurious in your arms, your smile is t he cool sun in the dark

Misery rejoices when you're near and fever
No sign of sickness keeps me burnin' down in my heart
Winter melts, she shys away quiet like the silence a dying star makes

I'm a jailbird to your music
A criminal in your prayer
I watch you when you sleep
Even when you're not there

Rainbows wept color all over the streets
When you went away maybe one day we'll meet

Lipstick i'd wear for one million years
Just to stop your eyes from falling down them tears

I fell in love with a bad bad man
Every since i met him
I've been sad sad sad
I'm a jailbird to your music
A criminal in your prayer
I watch you when you sleep
Even when you're not there

Rainbows wept color all over the streets
When you went away maybe one day we'll meet
One day we'll meet
One day we'll meet
One day
We'll meet
