Blood Bitch

Cocteau Twins

Blood woman
Blood bitch
There's a corona
A corona swelling

Pressing hands
Against this scar
There's no warmth
There's no warmth to be felt

Don't damage my altar Don't damn this cold flame Neither one or the other Has much form or shape

Cold burns powerful Has powerful needs Holds back What's my worth? There's a fire

I'll paint the blood bitch
The blood bitch black
Left or curious
Your the same old son
