Tom

Codeine

My words have broken throats Too ashamed to speak

Afflicted by disease They are so weak

I'll throw sand in your eye You need a reason to cry I'll throw sand in your eye I need a reason to smile

I went to school to learn But it didn't work

How do you learn to try Why can't I?

I'll throw sand in your eye
You need a reason to cry
I'll throw sand in your eye
I need a reason to smile
