

Our Love

Cœur de Pirate

I hear the sea, it roars
Into my secret hell
You're screaming at the door
And I can hardly yell

And times are hard, I'm longing to see
A different view where you're longing for me
I hear the sea, it roars
And I want out of here

Our love remains a breaking wave
Our love remains a race to the end
Nothing's left but the lies

I hear your song, it calls
But you were never there
All that I know is gone
And I can live again

And times are hard, I'm longing to see
A different view, are you longing for me?
I hear your song, it roars
And I want out of here

Our love remains a race to the end
Nothing's left but the lies

I hear the sea, it roars
Into my secret hell
You're screaming at the door
And I can hardly yell
