

Devil in Jersey City

Coheed and Cambria

Hee, Hee, Shabutie!

New Jersey bound
When sound asleep they'll find you
At your most vulnerable poll position
Speak up, let out.
When down the street
The corner boys fuck shit up

Scream loud, scream Sayonara, oh, oh, oh
Sweet Josephine, will you follow me home?
Scream loud, scream Sayonara, oh, oh, oh
Sweet Josephine, will you fuck me back home?

Let's fire it up. Haha! Now!
Let's fire it up. Haha! Now, Sayonara!
Don't let them scare you
When you're down on the floor bleeding, bastard.
You'll be getting home real soon
And I'll pray for you high health
Don't let them scare you
When you're down on the floor bleeding, bastard.
You'll be getting home real soon.

Speak up, let out.
Caught in the crossfire
Compared to the step to the bone that might break
It's too late to find a better way out of this
With the finest regards that I lost
In the cracks of this street

Scream loud, scream Sayonara, oh, oh, oh
(Wide open. Now you're dead and gone)
Sweet Josephine, will you follow me home?
Scream loud, scream Sayonara, oh, oh, oh
Sweet Josephine, will you fuck me back home?

Let's fire it up. Haha! Now!
Let's fire it up. Haha! Now, Sayonara!
Don't let them scare you
When you're down on the floor bleeding, bastard.
You'll be getting home real soon
And I'll pray for you high health
Don't let them scare you
When you're down on the floor bleeding, bastard.
You'll be getting home real soon.

Don't let them scare you.

(Take me home)
When you run they'll follow you
(Take me home)
When you run they'll follow you
(Take me home)
When you run they'll follow you
(Take me home)
