

Peace to the Mountain

Coheed and Cambria

I learned to keep quiet,
How to keep my distance.
Afraid to let strangers in,
How to keep my secrets.

Did I ever have,
An idea of what this should have been?
An unhappy accident,
Longing for an origin.

So let me go where no-one can follow,
Lost with my conscience, please bury me honest.
The song drones, I drink myself hollow,
Regrets grow regardless, please bury me honest.

I promise I'll go in peace,
No.
I promise I'll go in peace,
When I'm free.

Rejected to the brink,
Only so much I can change, an artist I wish I could have made.
Am I irrelevant?
Or will I get a chance to change, change the colours permanent.

So let me go where no-one can follow,
Lost with my conscience, please bury me honest.
The song drones, I drink myself hollow,
Regrets grow regardless, please, please baby bury me.

I promise I'll go in peace,
No.
I promise I'll go in peace,
When I'm free.

Peace to the mountain, girl I'm gonna go go.
Peace to the mountain, girl I'm gonna go go.
Peace to the mountain, girl I'm gonna go go.
Peace to the mountain, girl I'm gonna go go.

So let me go, where no-one can follow,
Lost with my conscience, please bury me honest.
The song drones, I drink myself hollow,
Regrets grow regardless, please bury me honest.

I promise I'll go in peace,
No.
I promise I'll go in peace,
When I'm free.

Peace to the mountain, girl I'm gonna go go.
Peace to the mountain, girl I'm gonna go go.
Peace to the mountain, girl I'm gonna go go.
Peace to the mountain, girl I'm gonna go go.
