When I get money I spend it on the bills but my baby shes the exception to the rules you might wanna call it upsession but this to my heart it's just a natural progression and I know that she and me can work things out, if things get tough, that's why shes a keeper that's why shes a keeper.

No one but you seems to get me they try to sweat me saying baby make me cum bed me even if they sexy it don't matter cause my heart won't let me put my other feelings aside, and I don't care what the other guys say they just jealous cause they don't have you, they don't have you girl, they they they don't have you girl.

Baby they wanna take you away from me, but that's not gonna happen not to us O no, they wanna take you away from, but the bond we have is stronger than they know, they wanna take you away from me, I ain't your average joe, they wanna take you away, they they wanna take they wanna take take you away.

I never thought that I'd let this get to me, telling all my friends she and I would neva be closer than what all they expected but I still made sure that she was always respected, cause I know she possibly could be the one if things get tough that's why shes a keeper that's why shes a keeper
