

Alone For You

Cold Chisel

Wake up in the morning, feel like shit
Waiting on a message, that's my hit
Forget about food, forget about time
Alla my body, alla my mind
Alla my intentions, alla my drive
Is bent on keeping our connection alive
Every decision, my vision is pinned
Counting off the hours till you call again

I'm alone for you, I'm alone I'm alone for you
I'm alone for you, I'm alone I'm alone for you

Checkin' on messages, lookin' at the wall
Leavin' my room, walkin' up and down the hall
Exiting the building, on the street
Shopping for nothing on the same old beat
Wandering the city, another night lost
Counting off the hours, the stations of the Cross
Counting off the hours, back to my room
Teenage cars goin' boom boom boom

I'm alone for you, I'm alone I'm alone for you
I'm alone for you, I'm alone I'm alone for you

Wake up in the morning, feel like shit
Waiting on a message, that's my hit
Forget about food, forget about time
Forget about checkin' out the scene of the crime

I'm alone for you, I'm alone I'm alone for you
