

No Good for You

Cold Chisel

Your last Margarita
And she's standing behind
She wants to be seated
You're reading her mind

Ain't it a shame
She's no good for someone like you
She'll bring you down
She's no good for you

Her husband's out workin' late
Makin' another man rich
She's down at the bar
You can hear the same old singles pitch

Ain't it a shame
She's no good for someone like you
She'll bring you down
She's no good for you

Well you don't know why she came here tonight
She just can't seem to stay away
And you know that it just ain't right
She drowns her heart and makes her play yeah

Ain't it a shame
She's no good for someone like you
She'll bring you down
She's no good for you

The ceiling is spinning
You need a moment alone
She's leaning over the table
And won't stop talking, on and on

Ain't it a shame
She's no good for someone like you
She'll bring you down
She's no good for you
She's no good for you
