Cryptomnesia

Cold War Kids

I sold you for parts You get what you want Then I'll want it too

I know who you are Don't know who your not I don't dare ask

Come back, we'll use the stove We'll make plans in the back Of your pickup truck

Oh, why no one told She crowns my lips And waits up

Helicopter sails Watching bird's eye That's when I dropped

And all my hands Where behaving Like maps expired

These rocks have been kicked My body is spent Can't stop and rest, oh no

Your comfort plus ease I see it in 3-D You can't dream so slow

Don't check the index for reference Curse the sky "Lord, give me hints" I search the place for your prints

I feel your cryptomnesia Cryptomnesia
