

Go Quietly

Cold War Kids

Talk to me well
All I could say
Is I need a few days
Of quiet and space

Now that I'm here
Restless in chains
It could have been fun
If it wasn't so strange

And now you wanted to share your life
And now you wanna be free to fly
But no, you can't have 'em both
Tonight decides what tomorrow knows

I could become some other man
You easily crush in the palm of your hand
Or one who puts you in the ring
Who runs away, runs away, runs when you swing

And now you wanted to share your life
And now you wanna be free to fly
But it's all or nothing you know
Tonight decides what tomorrow knows

Keep up with me, baby
I would never wanna force your hand
It's a mystery to me
In a language that you understand

And now you wanted to share your life
And now you wanna be free to fly
But no, you can't have 'em both
Tonight decides what tomorrow knows
Tonight decides what tomorrow knows
Tonight, tonight, tonight
Tonight decides what tomorrow knows
Tonight decides what tomorrow knows

Keep up with me, baby
I would never wanna force your hand
It's a mystery to me
In a language that you understand
