

Bizarre

Cold

Everyone upset
I want to breathe the fumes
Everyone got blazed
I still love you
No one ever said I don't enjoy the shame
No one ever said I don't enjoy the game

(well I cant control the way I loved her
I cant control the way she breaks)
Nothing ever changes in the bizarre
Nothing ever changes in the bizarre

Everyone upset
I want to breathe the fumes
Everyone got blazed
I still love you
No one ever said I wont enjoy the shame
No one ever said I wont enjoy the game

(well I cant control the way I loved her
I cant control the way she breaks)
Nothing ever changes in the bizarre
Nothing ever changes in the bizarre

Well I came a world, it's falling over
I wanna believe God loved his children
Well I came alone, no one forgives me
Well I said too much, God loved his children

Nothing ever changes in the bizarre
Nothing ever changes in the bizarre
Nothing ever changes here
Nothing ever changes here
