

Confession

Cold

Everybody loves stars
Everyone fell
Into her world she made here
Where everybody rates love
But I don't care
Cause it's her world, she made me
You think your half as good as me
The only thing you'll ever be
Is just a way for me to bleed
On this stage

Everybody loves stars
Everyone fell
Into her world she made here
Where innocence is taken
But I don't care
Cause it's her world, she made me

Now she's old
She's been blessed
Take a bow
And confess

She threw it all away
My angel died that day
No one came
No one cared
