

When Heaven's Not Far Away

Cold

If you slip away in darkness, do you fall?
And if God created love, did he make it for everyone?
Is there solitude and hope, can you still dream?
If the devil makes you cry, do you change?

In my own shame when heavens not far away

Do the little things in life stay with your soul?
Does an angel hold a sign with directions for everyone?
Is there someone there to have and hold for me?
If the stars refuse to shine, do you change?

In my own shame when heaven's not far away
In my own shame when heaven's not far away

Not far away from me
Not far away from me
Not far away

In my own shame when heaven's not far away
In my own shame when heaven's not far away
When heaven's not far away
When heaven's not far away
