How can I forgive what you've done to me?
Why can't I resist the things you say to me?

How can I, after all that we've been through?
Why do I still get this feelin' for you?

I burn in your lips slowly...

I burn in your lips slowly...

Your flame is our pain and we burn it again
Your flame is our pain and we burn it again

Your flame is our pain and we burn it again
Your flame is our pain and we burn it again

How can I forgive what you've done to me?
Why can't I resist the things you say to me?

How can I, after all that we've been through?
Why do I still get this feelin' for you?

I burn in your lips slowly...

Your flame is our pain and we burn it again
Your flame is our pain and we burn it again
