

Hollow

coldrain

Tell me what's the reason
Why you lead this world so hollow
Full of disappointment
Now your words don't mean a thing

Just get your ass up off that chair
And start to do something worthwhile
You promised more than you could give
Stop procrastinating
So ignorant and so full of sh*t
If you thought we'd be silent
You'd better prepare

Tell me what's the reason
Why you lead this world so hollow
Full of disappointment
Now we'd rather die than follow
Can't we wish for something brighter than this future?
Leader, can you hear us screaming?

Just wipe the tears off of your face
Yeah we all know you faked that sh*t
Stop wasting time 'cause this is not a f*cking play
It's real lives at stake
You're so ignorant and so full of sh*t
If you thought we'd be silent
You'd better prepare

Tell me what's the reason
Why you lead this world so hollow
Full of disappointment
Now we'd rather die than follow
Can't we wish for something brighter than this future?
Leader, can you hear us screaming?

Screaming
Why are you so hollow, so hollow?
Why are you so hollow, hollow?

Tell me what's the reason
Why you lead this world so hollow
Full of disappointment
Now we'd rather die than follow
Can't we wish for something brighter than this future?
Leader, can you hear us screaming?
