

Everlasting Love

Colin Blunstone

I have been deceived
I have been misled
Out in stormy seas
I have found no rest

I have told some lies
To protect myself
I've been such a fool
I've learned my lesson well

And in my search for freedom
I have found someone to lean on
This is not someone who's here and gone
This is everlasting love

I have been rescued
My life has just begun
For one who is so weak
With you I feel so strong

I can't believe my eyes
The sun has set me free
At last I understand
This peace inside of me

And in my search for purity
I have found someone who has met my needs
This is not a short term remedy
This is everlasting love

And in my search for honesty
I have found a love so true to me
I believe in one can not see
With an everlasting love
