Yes, we're breakin' up the house Yeah, breakin' up the house If we don't have a meetin' then everybody's gonna get real tight

I walked to the corner called the raisin' sun Raisin' up the roof for as all they've done

Last night and the night before 55 people came walkin' through my door Yeah, they're breakin' up the house Aw, they're breakin' up the house And if they don't have a meetin' They gonna have some kind of fight

In walked Cindy Lou She brought her whole family too Took off the hats, coats and shoes They ate up all the food then they took a little snooze
