

An Evening With

Collective Soul

I've watched you where you've been
I'm gonna watch you where you go

Never mind the thoughts you have
They guarantee the thoughts I know
So in the dark of night
It's just you and I
Let's live those dreams we swear we had
Let the blood pump faster than it ever has
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight

It doesn't matter what you share
It doesn't matter what you keep

I'm gonna give you what you want
You're gonna give me what I need

So with a battle cry
It's just you and I
Let's live those dreams we swear we had
Let the blood pump faster than it ever has
Tonight
Tonight
Yeah this world ain't good, this world ain't bad
But it's the only world we'll ever have
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight

Tomorrow we will see the sun
I heard some wise men say
So this night is ours to become
Any-anything

Let's live those dreams we swear we had
Let the blood pump faster than it ever has
Tonight
Tonight
Yeah this world ain't good, this world ain't bad
But it's the only world we'll ever have
Tonight
Tonight

Let's live those dreams we swear we had
Let the blood pump faster than it ever has
Tonight
Tonight
Tonight
