

Beautiful World

Collective Soul

In the morning
Hope is whispering to me quietly, quietly
Some confusion
Seems to reign continuously over me, over me
Though I walk through the valley
No more shadows will cover me
Yeah, yeah
Now you've opened my eyes

And it's a beautiful world
When I've got you here to hold
It's a beautiful world
Where all Heaven's light is shone
It's a beautiful world
When I've got you here to hold
It's a beautiful world
When I just let love take control

In the evening
Faith is watching over me
I believe, you better believe
As I'm lying
In arms of security I can see, yeah I see
All the ways you have given
In my hour of blinding need
Yeah, yeah
Now you've opened my eyes

And it's a beautiful world
When I've got you here to hold
It's a beautiful world
Where all Heaven's light is shone
It's a beautiful world
When I've got you here to hold
It's a beautiful world
When I just let love take control

The only way to hope is through tears
The only way to faith is through fear
The only way to love is when you kneel
Yeah, yeah
Now you've opened my eyes

And it's a beautiful world
When I've got you here to hold
It's a beautiful world
Where all Heaven's light is shone
It's a beautiful world
When I've got you here to hold
It's a beautiful world
When I just let love take control
