

Who's gonna be my savior
Now that I've learned to believe
Who's gonna be the answer
To all of my questioning

Well I hope I'm not lost
But I think that hope is now distancing
And the words that secure a cause
Are now faint whisperings

Who's gonna wear my crown
Who's gonna wear my crown
I don't know
I just might alone
Who's gonna wear my crown
Who's gonna wear my crown
I don't know
I've just got to go my way

Who's gonna be my partner
Now that I stand here alone
Who's gonna be the shepherd
To lead this poor boy back home

Well I hope I'm not lost
But I think that hope is now distancing
And the words that secure a cause
Are just faint whisperings

Who's gonna wear my crown
Who's gonna wear my crown
I don't know
I just might alone
Who's gonna wear my crown
Who's gonna wear my crown
I don't know
I just got to go my way
