

Good Morning After All

Collective Soul

Yeah you give up some days
When the tears they must flow
But God is always your strength
The only strength that you know
Now everything starts to fall in place

chorus

As you wake just to crawl
Still you say good morning after all
Yeah you stand just to fall
Still you say good morning after all

Intro 2x

Verse 2

Yeah you questioned this life
Sure you wondered about love
But you swear there's always hope
Always hope from above
Now everything starts to fall into place

chorus

Bridge

It's just another breath, It's just another breath you say
It's just another step, It's just another step today (he-e-ey, he-e-ey)
