

Tradition

Collective Soul

Its so subtle you into this
It always come back in time
That's when tradition starts
With gleam in our eye
So from where we are now
To where we want to begin
Lets gather up that innocence and start it again

Lets go down to the river
Lets go back to the sea
Lets go swim in the ocean
Just you and me

All these causes we possess
And emotions we owe
Its just a constant reminder
Of each other we chose
So when we following out
A subject to learn
That's when tradition starts
And love returns

Lets go down to the river
Lets go back to the sea
Lets go swim in the ocean
Just you and me

When conversation fails
And we left it all alone
Lets prefer back to basics
That was there all along
Whether Sunday morning dries
Or late night hangs
Its always always always you and me babe

Lets go down to the river
Lets go back to the sea
Lets go swim in the ocean
Just you and me

Lets go down to the river
Lets go back to the sea
Lets go swim in the ocean
Just you and me

Lets go back (3x)
Just you and me
Lets go back (2x)
Just you and me
