

Under Heaven's Skies

Collective Soul

Whenever I taste honey from your lips
It's a moment of purpose only you can give Whatever I hear, whatever I may see Whatever my cause, dear, I know you'll believe

Cause you're beautiful my love when I close my eyes
yeah you're beautiful my love under heaven's skies

If ever you think careless is the night
I'll comfort you with silence 'til the morning light
Wherever you turn, wherever you may roam
Whatever you conquer, I'll always be your home

Cause you're beautiful my love, when I close my eyes
yeah you're beautiful my love, under heaven's skies

Yeah you fly me through your skies of harmony,
And you lay me down with words of honesty
Yeah you're beautiful, you're beautiful here with me.

Yeah you're beautiful my love, when I close my eyes
yeah you're beautiful my love, under heaven's skies

Yeah you're beautiful my love
Yeah you're beautiful my love
Yeah you're beautiful my love

Yeah you're beautiful my love
Yeah you're beautiful my love
Yeah you're beautiful my love

Yeah you're beautiful my love
Yeah you're beautiful my love
Yeah you're beautiful my love

Yeah you're beautiful my love
Yeah you're beautiful my love
Under heaven's skies
