

Black

Collide

Black is the entrance
The essence to which I confide my mystery
Into the escape within evil is the villain
With a gun that kills just for fun

I feel it all come down in pieces
Hold me tight
It's cold outside
I feel it all come down in pieces
Hold me tight
It's cold outside

Black is the beauty so sleek
The mystery the rain that falls upon me

Deep is the color of your skin
Black is the void I fall in
Into the velvet sea

Black is an empty space
The place in which I desire
To hide within

Dark is a thing to fear where nothing's revealed
The depth below I'm falling

I feel it all come down in pieces
Hold me tight
It's cold outside
I feel it all come down in pieces
Hold me tight
It's cold outside
