

My World

Colony 5

Dim the light, it hurts my eyes it scars my skin and shatters my lies fold the blinds, let's stay inside

Take my hand, I'll give you strength come with me, we'll make our way through the light into the night

Welcome to my world
it's calm and cold Welcome to my soul
it's withered and old

Welcome to my mind tread lightly and slow Welcome to my love touch it and make it grow

We belong to this, this protected room the world outside is for the ones that's not afraid to lose

So take my hand, you are invited in Share my darkness and my lusts
I'm filled to the brim
