Symphony Of Hope

I have begun to hold on to hope Am I enough to star in the scene she plays In her dreams

Hope is a storm and I am so weak I hold on to her, I feel like a freak We fight the winds, love is a kite We hold on to the rope We hold on to hope

We walk over mountains We walk over crystal lakes

A magic moment, we embrace Caught inside the fairytale The lovers' secret place

Fear is a shield and I am afraid Love is so strong, it's like a grenade We stand our ground, love is an anchor We hold on to the rope We hold on to hope
