

If you knew

Colorfactory

if you knew yesterday
why didn't you just tell me why can't you just be my friend why all the lies that you say why are you so obvious
why can't you just tell the truth

I know something is happening and you are a stranger I wish that you would just go home and live live with your mother

what's the deal anyway
why are you so obvious

why all the games that you play
why are you so obvious
