

We're going all in tonight, raise your glass to the ceiling.
Neon lights and damn good times and that's what I'm feeling.
Take out the keys, unlock the door and we ain't stopping 'till
we hit the floor.
We're going all in, all in tonight.

Well, it looks like a country party, everybody grab somebody,
Short or tall, fat or thin, everybody's all in.
Gonna have a whole damn redneck throw down,
A shot for shot, showdown, right here in the old town.
Do you wanna dance a little two step to the field?
Get your drink on, 'cause tonight is the night you've been wait ing for,
Hit the floor, bartender, one more, I think I'll never go in.

We're going all in tonight, raise your glass to the ceiling.
Neon lights and damn good times and that's what I'm feeling.
Take out the keys, unlock the door and we ain't stopping 'till
we hit the floor.
We're going all in, all in tonight.

Well, it's too late, oh, well, my buddy, he's gonna tell, the w hole crowd is in, tonight you know how we do,
It's just another weekend hanging with my loudy friends, Jack,
Jim, all in, full or half, all in,
Everybody's somebody, this is that one party gonna talk about i t for the rest of the year.
Get a beer, sip some shine, grab my girl, but not mine, everyth ing will be fine if you just sing along.

We're going all in tonight, raise your glass to the ceiling.
Neon lights and damn good times and that's what I'm feeling.
Take out the keys, unlock the door and we ain't stopping 'till
we hit the floor.
We're going all in, all in tonight.

We're going all in tonight, raise your glass to the ceiling.
Neon lights and damn good times and that's what I'm feeling.
Take out the keys, unlock the door and we ain't stopping 'till
we hit the floor.
We're going all in, all in tonight.
We're going all in, all in tonight.