

Politically Incorrect

Combat 84

I aint vegetarian I like to eat meat, I don't wear sandals I wear boots on my feet

If I go out for a night I won't let my bird pay, they say this is wrong in this fked up world today

I won't send money to a foreign place, then watch their government stuff their face

I tell the beggars to get off their arse, I'm working not fking middle class

This whole world is fking mad, to be politically correct is fking sad

I'm politically incorrect (4x)

I go out to football in my England shirt, the old bill abuse me and treat me like dirt

I aint done nothing wrong but I have no say, they'd lock me up if they had their way

Why do all the scum and terrorists get off, rapists and muggers, I've had a fking nuff

We can't offend them or infringe their rights, let's name 'em and shame 'em and hang 'em in the night

This whole world is fking mad, to be politically correct is fking sad

I always hold a door to let a lady come through, 'cos this is the right fking thing to do

I read the News of the world and I like the Sun, but they say I should read the Guardian

But I like page 3 and I like a bit of sport, and I like throwing one up some old sort

So just leave me alone to go down the cafe, 'cos I don't go out mugging or burgling a gaff

This whole world is fking mad, to be politically correct is fking sad
