Combichrist

Even at the gates of hell Not forgotten, no regrets It's in our hands but all for nothing???? say it's inside of me They litter your eyes Follow your soul Why do you lie? Swallow your craze Fall to the ground "Nobody cares" is all you say to me "Follow through" is all you mentioned Always feel it's all for him Didn't fake it, sober now It's all over now, there is no forgiveness They litter your eyes Follow your soul Why do you lie? Swallow your craze Fall to the ground "Nobody cares" is all you say to me
