

Slave to Machine

Combichrist

I'll let this darkness last forever
I've been longing for tranquility
And somewhere deep inside of me
There's room for sacrifice, a total war

I lick the blood of your lips
We fall to the ground
Dreams shattered away
On our knees on burning flesh
I'll let this darkness last forever

Slave to machine
Extermination
I'll let this darkness last forever
Destroy this world of dreams
X2

A seed within my mind
Hate grows roots
And leaves a trail
A memory of a stranger
The laughter in my head

Trembling hands covers the sun
It was all I had to offer
It was never supposed to be like this
An end, but not like this

Slave to machine
I'll let this darkness last forever
Destroy this world of dreams
X2

I'll let this darkness last forever
Destroy this world of dreams

Slave to machine
I'll let this darkness last forever
Destroy this world of dreams
X2
