

Talk Is Cheap

Comeback Kid

your debt's escalating whisper no regrets run your mouth in circles chewing, chewing the flesh

(your talk is cheap) and it's going nowhere think you're out changing the world choking on each word (you spit) those basement dwelling days are so far from me moving mountains in your head buying into all that's said

(dive, sink, drown)
caught up in this lie (dive, sink, drown)
caught up in this life outside your own

(your talk is cheap) and it's going nowhere
think you're out changing the world

convinced of your false visions (you're the sucker)
KEEP TALKING
keep talking away

cashing in all your petty words
keep talking away
it's so far from me living like you're dead
