Without a Word

Comeback Kid

In an effort to win
I lost it all
At a standstill
How easily it's said

Now eat your words Everything that I wanted to say It seemed to die It all seemed to die on my lips

Another broken heart Another hit and miss And when nothing else is easy How easily it's said

Words so easy to be said
Harder I try harder I fall
Words so easy to be said
Competition it seems so usless
Words so easy to be said
With an ending all to predictable
Words so easy to be said

And once again I've lost it all
